

Members Conduct

Introduction to the Code

This Code of Conduct is a key part of the Authority's discharge of its statutory duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by its members and co-opted members. It is very much focused upon the principles of conduct in public life of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty and leadership and it is the intention of the Authority that the Code be used exclusively in that context and not for any other purpose. It sets an objective, non-political and high standard whose purpose is to remind members of the Authority of the behaviour expected of them in public life and to set out clearly the key principles against which their conduct will be measured.

The Code also contains provisions for registration and declaration of interests the breach of which will now attract potential criminal sanctions.

Great Yarmouth Borough Council will establish a Standards Committee to hear breaches of the Code and decide on sanctions against members found to be in default. Working closely with the Borough Council's Monitoring Officer and Independent Person the Standards Committee will oversee a straightforward and robust regime dealing only with substantial ethics and standards issues and filtering out the inconsequential, trivial, or over-procedural. To return to the wording of the statute the Code is the Authority's public statement on the promotion and maintenance of high standards of conduct in public life.

Every member and co-opted member of Ormesby St Michael Parish Council must sign an undertaking to observe the Code in the terms set out below.

The Code

As a member or co-opted member of Ormesby St Michael Parish Council I have a responsibility to represent the community and work constructively with our staff and partner organisations to secure better social, economic and of

As a member of Ormesby St Michael Parish Council my conduct will in particular address the statutory principles of the Code by:

- Championing the needs of residents – the whole community and in a special way my constituents, including those who did not vote for me and putting their interest first.
- Dealing with representations or enquiries from residents, members of our communities and visitors fairly, appropriately, and impartially.
- Not allowing other pressures, including the financial interests of myself or others connected to me, to deter me from pursuing constituents' casework, the interests of Ormesby St Michael Parish Council nor the good governance of the authority in a proper manner.
- Exercising independent judgement and not compromising my position by placing myself under obligations to outside individuals or organisations who might seek to influence the way I perform my duties as a member/co-opted member of this authority.
- Listening to the interests of all parties, including relevant advice from statutory and other professional officers, and making decisions on merit.
- Being accountable for my decisions and cooperating when scrutinised internally and externally, including by local residents.
- Contributing to making this authority's decision making processes as open and transparent as possible to enable residents to understand the reasoning behind those decisions and to be informed when holding me and other members to account, but restricting access to information when the wider public interest or law requires it.
- Behaving in accordance with all our legal obligations, alongside any requirements contained within this authority's policies, protocols, and procedures, including on the use of the Authority's resources.
